

Things to do in Uppsala.

Gustavianum

In the museum's permanent exhibitions, you will find parts of the collections that Uppsala University has gathered since its foundation in 1477. Everything from mummies and Viking helmets to art, ancient coins and Celsius' very own thermometer. You will also find instruments and other types of objects that show the history of Uppsala University and the work of scientists like Rudbeckius, Celsius and Linnaeus, all of whom were active here. More information Museum Gustavianum - Destination Uppsala.

Uppsala Castle Museum

About Uppsala Castle Museum

Uppsala Slottshistoriska, or Uppsala Castle Museum, is a museum that tells the story of Uppsala and the castle's history and development. The Castle Museum enables more people to take part in the history of the castle and Uppsala.

At the Castle you'll also have Uppsala Art Museum Uppsala Art Museum - Destination Uppsala

At the oldest part of Uppsala Castle, called Vasaborgen, there's also a chance to meet the ghosts of Uppsala.. Home Page

Pelle Svanslös

Meow! Do you know Peter-No-Tail? The famous cat lived in Uppsala and has left his paw prints here. Today you meet him on guided walks where you can paw over his own pedestrian crossing to the neighbourhood around Åsgränd where he lived with his love Maja Gäddnos but which was also home to Elaka Måns, his sidekicks Bill & Bull and the other cats.

Go Adventure Takvandring och äventyrsbana Uppsala - Aktiviteter Stockholm.

Meet the vikings

At Old Uppsala Museum you can explore the prehistory of Sweden and Uppsala.

Visit Gamla Uppsala museum, one of Scandinavia's most noteworthy cultural environments, and learn more about the centuries-old myths surrounding the area. Exhibits include unique and original finds from the royal mounds, which have long served as a symbol of a magnificent past.

Gamla Uppsala museum - Destination Uppsala